

A QUICK GUIDE TO

DISCORD

ACCOUNT AND INSTALLATION

Go to:

https://discord.com/register and create an account (if you don't have one)

https://discord.com/download and download the app for your operating system (please don't use the web version)

It's important to have it activated on your computer and phone to avoid missing information and be able to ask questions!

Please add your profile picture before the start of the class so that coaches and the team can recognise you.

CHANNELS

- On the left side you can see the list of channels that you have access to
- There are two types of channel: chat and voice
- To join a text channel simply click on it
- To join a voice channel make sure your headphones are plugged in and click on the channel

All channels have their own specific rules on what to post in them. Please click icon to see their descriptions

TAGGING/MENTION @

- To mention a user ;type @ + the user name, and that user will get a notification
- To mention a group ;type @ + the group name, and EVERY user of that group will get a notification

TAGGING NAMES

- @students: to notify all students in the channel
- @ team: to notify HYF team in the channel
- @coaches: to notify coaches in the channel

STAY AWAY FROM TAGS

- @here: You can notify everyone who has joined the server and IS CURRENTLY ONLINE
- @everyone: You can mention everyone who HAS ACCESS TO A CHANNEL even if they are not reading the channel right now

This tags can disturb all HYF Discord users who are not involved with the conversation. Please try not to use them!

We require you to be active on Discord and ask questions when you get stuck. You are also required to help each other out when one of your peers is stuck. What's the point in asking for help if no one is
